

Danielle Smith joined the Michigan League of Human Services in 2012 as a coalition coordinator for the newly formed Prosperity Coalition. Prior to joining the League Danielle led advocacy efforts for the Homeless Action Network of Detroit's Ten Year Plan To End Homelessness.

She also worked as an organizer and communications specialist for SEIU Healthcare Michigan and the Detroit City Council as a community relations liaison. Danielle holds a bachelor's degree in public relations and public affairs from Central Michigan University and is a Center for Progressive Leadership Fellow.

Contact: dsmith <at> milhs.org