

Peter Ruark, Senior Policy Analyst
Michigan League for Human Services

Peter's areas of focus include workforce development, adult learning, public assistance, family self-sufficiency, wage mobility and low-income tax credits. He produces Economic Self-Sufficiency in Michigan, the annual Money Back in Michigan packet, the annual Labor Day Report, and the quarterly Economic Security Bulletin. From 2007 to 2010, he facilitated the Michigan Statewide Earned Income Tax Credit Coalition. He is an active participant in the national Working Poor Families Project and the Economic Analysis Research Network.

Prior to joining the League in 2001, he directed an educational after-school program for at-risk children in Grand Rapids, taught English at the university and primary school level in the People's Republic of China, and worked in the mental health field. Peter has a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Calvin College and a Master of Social Work with a concentration in Policy, Planning and Administration from Western Michigan University. He is a licensed social worker in Michigan, and serves as Vice President for Social Policy on the board of the National Association of Social Workers—Michigan Chapter.
