

Renell Weathers joined the staff as Outreach Coordinator in July 2011.

Prior to coming to the League, Renell worked as Senior District Representative for U.S. Rep. Mark Schauer where she collaborated with a diverse array of community leaders, agencies, grassroots organizations and local units of government. She also she served as Constituent Relations Director and District Representative for the Office of Michigan Senate Minority Leader, managed a nonprofit that provides programs for at-risk youth and operated her own child care service.

She is a member of the Jackson Chamber's MLK Diversity Committee, whose mission is to promote community collaboration to reflect Dr. King's dream and to motivate youth for service and excellence, and she was awarded Jackson Community College's 2011 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Medal of Service Award. The King Medal of Service Award recognizes individuals in Jackson for their community service and who believe in the basic tenets of cultural and ethnic diversity, recognize the richness and strength that comes from valuing others of different groups and encourage minority group members to participate fully in our society.

Renell attended Wayne State University and holds a bachelor of arts in management and organizational development from Spring Arbor University.
